Dear parents,

The past month was a busy month, a lot of fun activities were held including Group Hiking, York Regional Forest Hike, Apple Day and Children Mass.... Etc. A lot of fun events had passed but there are many more planned programs to come! In the coming few months, we will have more and more exciting programs for our Beavers. Beavers that had missed out our past fun events here is another chance for you to participate and have even more fun! Here is a highlight of upcoming events:

A reminder: Weather is changing, it is getting cold now. Beavers need to bring jackets with them and please leave the jackets with them throughout the meeting and make sure you have the right jacket when you leave the meeting. Also, please give small backpacks to Beaver with a bottle of water and some stationary as they will need them in meetings.

Thanks!
